* Comment. The same source previously reported that the situation in Lodz was unchanged prior to 3 June 1950. See [REDACTED]. Since Soviet troops had not been in Lodz for a long time, it was then believed that source meant that no Soviet troops had arrived in the city by that time. The Soviet soldiers observed in Lodz on 27 June 1950 possibly belonged to one of the Soviet guard units employed along trunk lines and traffic centers.
